Social Meet Kicks-off Fall Uni-Women Meet

A combination social and informative gathering at recently kicked-off the fall season of the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch.

The meeting was held at the Palos Verdes Art Gallery.

In line with the group's 1959-60 theme, "Did You Know That...?" the meeting served to acquaint the membership with program plans for the various sections. Informal talks were given by Miss Antoinette Ransom, state program chairman, and Miss Mary Murphy, representing the State Division of Mass Media. "The AAUW Story," in slides and tape, presented background material on the organization.

Each study group chairman presented briefly her group's plans for the year. Card tables served as information centers for details and sign-ups for the various sections and 1959-60 yearbooks, edited by Mrs. Douglas L. Stone, were distributed.

Newly named standing chairmen who participated in the program were: Mmes. Laurence T. Dailey, arts; William A. Bailey, crafts; Hubert R. Owen, creative writing; Alfred Geyer, dance; Wallis H. Ayres and John A. Shidler, drama; Charles H. Knight, music; Dean Dunlavey and Miss Augusta Fink, books.

Mmes. Richard M. Linde and Samuel C. Rockwood, education; H. C. O'Brien, fellowship program; William K. Ford, bridge; Hugh L. Hixon, international relations; Amy Miller Boyer, legislative program; John C. King, mass media; Robert M. Burson, civil defense, and Miss Irmadelle Rous, status of women.

Assisting Mrs. Gene L. La Husen, hospitality chairman, was Mmes. Donald Melstrom, Howard W. Swarthout and John W. Shuler.

It's A Wise Parent

A Common Sense Approach to Your Child

By Janice Coe

Dear Miss Coe,

Help! I am the victim of a teen-age daughter! She criticizes my language, my clothes, my hair, my make-up. I thought I was a pretty nice looking, intelligent person until she hit fourteen. Now I'm nothing but a dumb frump. How do I stop the constant fault-finding?
Harassed Mother

Dear H. M.

Mark Twain said long ago, "When I was sixteen my father was so ignorant I could hardly bear to talk to him. But it's amazing how much the old man learned by the time I was twenty-one!"

You see, all young people go through a phase of criticizing their parents, whether they express it or not. It's their way of expressing their own growing egos. . . but it's sure tough on Mom or Dad!

Try to remember that, when children are growing, we parents criticize and correct them all the time. It's part of the training process we put them through. Now it's time to demand respect, but to give it too. It's time to build up your daughter's ego by telling her how pretty she looks, or how bright she is. Your appreciation of her might make her think you're pretty smart too!

Send all questions concerning your child to "It's A Wise Parent," Janice E. Coe, care of this newspaper. Letters must be signed, but names will be withheld.

Nuptials Unite Miss Goldsbury and Don Hawks

Miss Janie Goldsbury daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Goldsbury of 1269 W. 27th St., San Pedro became the bride of Don Hawks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hawks of 24661 Moon Ave., Lomita, Aug. 29 at 2 p.m. at Green-wich.

The bride was given in marriage by her father with Dee Mohr serving her as maid of honor and Judy Goldsbury as bridesmaid. Pat Hawks acted as the best-man and Ralph Standridge and Don Mann as ushers.

Following the double wedding ceremonies the newly weds were honored at a reception.

The new Mrs. Hawks is a graduate of San Pedro High school 1955. The bridegroom graduated from Torrance High School in 1954 and is now serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Ord.

The couple will make their new home at 109 Pine, Salinas.
